

Anne and Kyle's wedding could not have been more perfect! Instead of doing the traditional wedding time of later in the evening, they opted for a more whimsical feel and celebrated their big day in the morning. From corn hole to mimosas, this wedding was a major hit!

Guests enjoyed playing games dancing and soaking in the beautiful summer weather. The touches of fruit in the decor gave this wedding a fresh feel.

Grab some inspiration from this beautiful couple and their decor!

